COPE Service Journey

And most importantly: The customer is happy again!

The service center directly schedules the job for the technician.

The technician receives the assignment and fixes the customer's problem.

After solving the problem the technician records all the information on his mobile app.

After synchronization the service center has immediate access to all the information the technician has added.

Something is broken.
The customer
needs service!